RABBI BEREL WEIN

Rabbi Berel Wein may not have invented Jewish history, but with his particular blend of insight, charisma and vision, he has - and continues to eternalize the over 4,000 year old legacy for Jews the world over. And this legacy is crucial to the Jewish people. Attempting to be a Jew in the 21st century without understanding the layers of political, cultural and religious events that formed the Jewish world is like starting a book in the middle. The present is never so rich when the past is a question mark. Founder and director of the Destiny Foundation for over twenty-five years, Rabbi Wein has been identified as one of the foremost Orthodox historians in the world.

In honor of our esteemed founder, mentor, leader and friend;

This evening marks a most significant milestone in the life and career of one of the pre-eminent Jewish educators of our time. Rabbi Berel Wein has inspired, guided, taught and uplifted generations of Jewish adults and children.

Through his Jewish History tapes, myriad recorded lectures in Jewish thought and learning, lectures in far-flung communities around the world, and guided tours to both exotic and not so exotic locales, there is hardly a Jew in the world who hasn't in some way been touched by Rabbi Wein's guiding hand.

For those of us privileged to be a part of his shul and community, this occasion is even more special and personal. We have taken great pride in seeing the world recognize the treasure that we knew our founding rabbi to be. We are proud to be the place where much of it began, as Rabbi Wein began disseminating his lectures from our synagogue to the broader Jewish world. But, most of all, we are honored and privileged to have had, and continue to have a close personal connection to Rabbi Berel Wein as our rabbi and our friend.

Those who have been here long enough have seen Rabbi Wein's indelible imprint guide and influence their families across generations. Our newer and older members alike feel Rabbi Wein's values and perspective permeate every aspect of our synagogue.

Congregation Bais Torah is a vibrant synagogue that reflects and upholds the ideals inculcated in us by our dear founder, mentor and friend.

On this momentous occasion of your reaching the age of might, we join in wishing you continued vigor, strength, and success in spreading Torah to all the Jewish People.

For the past 20 years we have been the fortunate recipients of Rabbi Wein's guidance, teaching and wisdom. Not only is Rabbi Wein the Moreh D'Atra of our community but his writings also take matters concerning the wider community into account. His Drashot may be based on traditional sources but always relate to relevant contemporary issues - a truly wonderful gift.

We wish you a most successful evening and we wish Rabbi Wein many happy returns on his special birthday having reached 'gevurot'. May he have many more years in which he can produce his panoply of inspirational educational works.

Now, Rabbi Wein is about to be awarded the Destiny Lifetime Achievement Award and we cannot think of anyone more fitting to receive it. Mazaltov and Congratulations!

Warmest greetings from us to you!

CELEBRATING THE Lifetime
Achievements
OF Rabbi
Berel Wein

The Mercaz Center For Teacher Training

joins the wide range of institutions and projects that acclaim

Rabbi Berel Wein's achievements.

He has made tremendous contributions to our Center, both as an educational innovator and as a perpetual quiet advisor and supporter.

The term "lifetime" connotes a finality which we prefer to reject. Rather, we join in applauding his past and present achievements and couple that with the tefilla that he be blessed with the strength and health to have a flourishing future of continued "achievements"

Rabbi Joel Kramer
Rabbi Hillel Mandel
Mr. Avi Shulman

Dear Rabbi Wein,

You have influenced and inspired me in so many ways which you cannot possibly know. Your personal kindness to me, be it in the field of Milah, speaking or writing has always touched me. Your audio recordings over the last decades have taught me so much about the broad spectrum of life. Your thoroughly researched biographies of Gedolei Torah from previous generations opened up vistas of history to me that broadened my appreciation of their greatness and commitment. Your audios on Torah personalities such as the Netziv, Rav Shimon Shkop, Rav Meir Schapiro, and the Vilna Gaon were heart-rending. Your personal recollections of your connections to The Satmar Rebbe, the Ponevezer Rov, and Rav Yaakov Kaminetzky, were riveting.

Your frankness on topics is invigorating. Your diversity of knowledge of our people from the beginning of time is humbling. How have you managed to do all this? I recall the story you told me about how you met Rav Isaac Halevi Herzog when you were only eleven years old in Chicago. I have told that story so many times because I want it to be engrained in my essence.

You have brought us Rashi, the Rambam and Ramban as no one else has. You once told me in Miami that a person must continue to do what he believes in. You personify that with pride. Who else but you can talk about ancient Egypt and the Chicago Cubs? Who else but you would tell us that you learned how to read a newspaper from your rebbe Rav Mendel Kaplan and he could barely speak English? Prophecy, redemption, parenting and consolation – you have guided our generation. You are a gift to all of us from Hashem and for that, I among tens of thousands around the world are grateful.

I know you are not the emotional type, but know that I sign this letter with tears of love. I take pride that I have been fortunate to interact with you on numerous occasions. May Hashem bless you with continued clarity and health and the willingness and strength to continue His work for the benefit of all of us.

Eternally grateful,

Paysach Krohn

Joan Dachs Bais Yaakov – Yeshivas Tiferes Tzvi joins the Destiny Foundation and the entire Jewish world in recognizing the lifetime achievements of Rabbi Berel Wein. This is certainly a well- deserved honor, as there are very few individuals whose career and impact have affected so many communities throughout the United States and Israel.

We are privileged to consider Rabbi Wein one of the ‘Founding Fathers’ of our school. In our very early, formative years, he played a crucial role as a parent and officer in the school. A mere 50 years later, Chicago is renowned as one of the premier Torah communities in North America, and the largest Orthodox Jewish Day School in the Midwest is JDBY-YTT, with an enrollment approaching 1000 children ka”h. This is a testament to the vision and foresight of Rabbi Wein and his contemporaries who expended so much of their time, energy, and yes, hard-earned money, to get the school off the ground. Their dedication will forever be appreciated and remembered.

Dear Friends,

It is a pleasure to congratulate Rabbi Berel Wein on his well-deserved Lifetime Achievement Award. Rabbi Wein is a phenom. His impact on so many areas of Jewish life has been nothing less than historic.

As the Rabbinic Administrator of the OU, Rabbi Wein set the stage for the growth of the certification program, both in terms of its reach and its standards.

As a gifted rabbi and teacher, Rabbi Wein has educated and inspired his congregants and his students for more than half a century.

As a builder of Torah institutions, in both America and in Israel, Rabbi Wein has left a lasting impact on the Torah world.

As a distinguished historian, he has educated his students and adherents in the rich legacy of our people, the tragedy and triumphs, the degradation and the redemption. He has brought to life in his writing the glory of the Lithuanian Yeshivos.

And as an author and lecturer of unique eloquence, wit, and historical perspective, Rabbi Wein, through his books, lectures, and writings, has informed, entertained and enlightened generations of his devoted followers.

Yet I am confident that Rabbi Wein's achievements for the Jewish people until this point, as momentous as they are, will serve as but a prologue for his future contributions.

Sincerely,

Rabbi Menachem Genack

Rabbi Berel Wein is a towering figure, a modern-day icon of the Jewish People. In a Jewish world filled with confusion and daunting challenges, Rabbi Wein's voice is one of calm and clarity, of warmth and wisdom. It is a voice that heals rifts and inspires confidence in the future of Klal Yisroel. It is a voice that uplifts as it informs. Rabbi Wein is, of course, a prolific, elegant and learned writer, whose books fill Jewish homes throughout the world. His unique scholarship radiates authentic Torah knowledge and perspective on the sweep of Jewish history. Indeed, Rabbi Berel Wein comes from a remarkable vantage point as both a talmid chacham and a master Jewish historian.

Throughout an epic and extraordinarily productive career, Rabbi Wein has maintained his creative edge; never stagnant, always innovating, he has constantly sought new platforms and media through which to spread his ideas and teachings. His work has spanned multi-layered Torah sforim and weighty historical tomes, to, more latterly, social media and internet communication, and even film and animation.

On a personal level I am ever grateful to Rabbi Wein for his friendship and kindness to me, and for his sage advice on which I have come to rely.

Rabbi Berel Wein transcends the usual barriers of ideology and sectarianism that divide Torah Jews from one another. He is a force of unity in a world of division.

May Hashem continue to bless him with many more years of teaching and inspiring Klal Yisrael.

It is a great honor and pleasure to join in the tribute to my dear brother-in-law, Rabbi Berel Wein.

Ever since his marriage to my dear sister Jackie ע"ה, Reb Berel has brought honor and prestige to the Levin family.

His Torah scholarship, his depth of thinking, his unsurpassed speaking and writing ability, his love of Klall Yisroel and Eretz Yisroel, his charisma and friendship to all, have made him one of the leading Rabbonim of our generation.

In his youth, as a young lawyer and business man in Chicago, he was one of the founders of Telshe Yeshiva in 1960. His involvement and foresight were major factors in laying the foundation of our Yeshiva in Chicago. During the years, our Yeshiva has changed the landscape of Midwest American Jewry.

With best wishes for אריכת ימים ושנים, good health and the ability to continue his Rabbanus and his devoted efforts for Klall Yisroel, I remain

In Honor of our Father
Rabbi Wein

Our father has devoted his life to the study and teaching of Jewish history, but as his children, we have learned to insert that history into our daily lives. He has taught us to use Jewish history as our collective rear-view mirror so we can have a clear vision of our surroundings and an understanding of the challenges we will undoubtedly face.

He has taught us that life's challenges are not black and white. He has shown us the quintessential balance of embracing technology and yet revering antiquity. He has taught us to treasure diversity, to travel, to explore and to use our time well.

At this time, we wish to express our ongoing Hakaras Hatov for all that he has done and continues to do. How proud and lucky we are to be his children. May Hashem grant him health and long life, along with his wonderful wife Mira, to continue in his noble ways.

Our Rav, our Teacher, our Mentor and our Friend
You have shown us through example that to remain in one place is to become stagnant.

Rabbi Wein is the star of our generation.

Fortunate are we to know him, to learn from him and to continue his dreams and "Destiny".

There are clearly advantages to getting sent to 'the office' so many times in High School! Thank you Rabbi for your words of encouragement, insight and blessings. Always.

The greatest gift we have from Rabbi Wein is global vision.
In Torah, in thought and the courage to make our own decisions in the face of raging storms and pernicious tides.

Everything meaningful we have in our lives is a result of this precious gift. We truly owe Rabbi Wein our world.

Thank you and may Hashem continue to bless you with everything

With gratitude for the opportunity and privilege of attending An Evening of Tribute celebrating Lifetime Achievements of our favorite Rabbi Berel Wein, with whom we have learned for maybe 40 years -- I extend sincere good wishes for continued good health and productivity.

From your history tapes, Pirke Avos, Buy Green Bananas, Echoes of Glory, Herald of Destiny, Triumph of Survival, and Vintage Wein, and the times we have been in Denver, Colorado and Lancaster, Pennsylvania to hear your splendid lecture style in person -- (not to forget your monthly newsletter) -- my only regret is that my husband and Wein aficionado, Barney, could not be here to celebrate with you.

In his stead, I come to add yet another book to my Wein Library, one with my favorite name "And you shall teach them diligently unto your children" --and of course, one for my sister, Rosyne Gardenswartz, who is also a fan of the very best Wein.

1934 was truly a vintage year! Yasher Koach!

One of the high points of my return to Judaism was to meet you – firstly through your wonderful and informative lectures. But the highlight of my Jewish education was meeting you over lunch when you would visit Los Angeles.

You have been an ongoing inspiration for me.

You instilled pride and a love of Judaism.

When I joined the California military at the tender age of 60, I saw that the entire force had only Christian chaplains – no Rav. The knowledge I received from you gave me the confidence to enroll in rabbinical school.

As the only rabbi in the California military, I like to say I became the Chief Rabbi by default.

You have been my teacher – and you continue to be my teacher. You have blessed so many lives.

Rabbi Berel Wein was my first paying customer as a scribe when I first moved to Monsey. We used to daven in the basement of a private house, before Rabbi Wein built his Shul. One day the Rabbi called me and asked if I would fix the Sefer Torah. "Rabbi, I am just learning how to do this." "Kalman. I know you know how to make an aleph, so meet me at the shul and I will show you where to put it." We met and there was just a small crack in a letter. After I fixed it, which just took about one minute, the Rabbi insisted on paying me $25 (1974). "But Rabbi, I daven here, and you saw how long it took." He put the money in my hand, closed my hand, and said, "Take it home and give it to your wife. She will know what to do with it." Just one example of Rabbi Wein's sensitivity for the situation and the feelings of others.

Our films and multi-media programming are designed to educate, inspire, inform, and instill a sense of pride and purpose in being Jewish. To demonstrate how each and every Jew fits into the big picture of Jewish history.

Through innovative initiatives such as the Faith and Fate Documentary Series and The Heralds of Destiny Animated Film Series, together with comprehensive Educators' Guides, Audio Lectures, Online Multi-Media Jewish History Learning Courses and Books, the Destiny Foundation is changing the way history is experienced and learned.

Destiny's multi-media tools gives today's new generation of Jews, innovative ways to explore and define their Jewish identity and history.

DESTINY'S GOALS:

To support educational outreach in order to strengthen and reinforce Jewish identity and commitment to Jewish continuity and Israel.

To produce effective and ongoing films and multi-media educational materials and programming for use in the home, classroom, and in Jewish communities.

To offer training and ongoing support to teachers and educators for each of our projects.

BACKGROUND

It all started with a few audio cassettes on Jewish history, recorded by Berel Wein, way back in the 1980's. The lectures were unique in several ways. Firstly, they were the first series on Jewish history available on tape. Secondly, Berel Wein in his inimitable style put Jewish history into perspective. world history – and how it relates to our lives today. Thirdly, he did it in an engaging and insightful way – as only a master storyteller, with a dry sense of humor, could. By popular demand the series grew. To date over 1,000,000 of his lectures have been purchased world-wide. Then came the books that complimented the tapes. Then came the films. In 1996 Berel Wein started the Destiny Foundation to expand production and distribution – and make Jewish history digitally available to the widest audience possible.

WHY IS JEWISH HISTORY IMPORTANT?

Our past influences our future – and history is the map that guides us to our destination. Understanding how each individual is an essential part of the chain of Jewish history, creates a unique and critical link in the continuity of our people.

“Jewish History is our teacher ... it is our rear view mirror.

If you don't know where you come from – how do you know where you are going?

It's one of the most valuable tools for understanding and dealing with today's world”

Berel Wein

THE POWER OF TODAY'S MEDIA IN JEWISH EDUCATION

Today's students are totally media savvy.

Information is instantly accessible, downloadable, transmittable and interactive. Media has impact – and it works.

Also, today's audiences have the power of choice. The power to choose what media to communicate in, and what media is the most effective to learn from and easy-to-use.

Today, all information is available digitally. That is why Destiny produces it's films and educational materials in multi-media formats – to make them more convenient and impactful. Each of Destiny's films are accompanied by a multi-media educational guide.
